مَعَ الْبَيْتِ إِلَى الْبَيْتِ

With the Ka'bah to the Ka'bah

All praise and gratitude - hamd and thanaa - is for Allah. Every bounty, blessing, and ne'mat flows from His infinite grace. He bestowed upon Mumineen an extraordinary honour: the opportunity to accompany the Dai of Rasulullah SAW and his shehzada the Imam-uz-Zamaan, al-Dai al-Fatemi, Syedna Taher Fakhruddin TUS, on a sacred journey to Madina Munawwara for the ziyarat of Rasulullah SAW and to Makkah Mo'azzama to perform 'Umrah.

Mumineen had gathered from all over the world to take barakat with Syedna TUS. Just as the physical Baitullah unites Muslimeen from every corner of the world, so too did Mumineen gather and unite under the cool shade of the haqiqi Baitullah, the Ka'bah of our souls, Syedna Taher Fakhruddin TUS. Just as we face towards the physical Ka'bah in our prayers, our souls face towards the Imam of the age, the spiritual haqiqi Ka'bah. Syedna Taher Saifuddin RA expresses this tasawwur and belief eloquently in a verse of his qasida:

مولى الانام سلالة المختار * ممثول بيت الله ذي الاستار

'The Imam in the progeny of Rasulullah SAW is the Lord of all people, he is the one symbolised by the Ka'bah that is shrouded in veils.'

Dawat texts narrate that the Duat Mutlaqeen, in one facet of meaning, are symbolised by the veils of the Ka'bah, as the true shaan of the Imam is concealed and protected within them. In another facet of meaning, the Duat Mutlaqeen themselves are symbolised by the Ka'bah, as in the period of the seclusion of the Imam, the Duat sit in place of the Imam upon his gaadi. This is why one of the Hudud of Dawat arazed to the 47th Dai Syedna Abdul-Qadir Najmuddin RA when accompanying him for Hajj:

“مع البيت الى البيت”

'With the Ka'bah to the Ka'bah.'

Likewise, the Madina of Rasulullah SAW is a symbol for his Dawat - the Dawat that is established in every age by the Imams in his progeny, and, in their seclusion, safeguarded by the Duat Mutlaqeen. Just as a city provides its inhabitants with sustenance, security, and prosperity, the Dawat of Rasulullah SAW is a sanctuary for the soul, offering the nourishment of divine knowledge and protection from perdition in the Hereafter. Indeed, it is to this meaning that Mazoon-ud-Da'watil-Gharra' Syedi wa Maulaya Dr. Abdeali Bhaisaheb Saifuddin AAB alludes to in his *qasida mubarak*a in praise of Syedna TUS:

اسكنتنا في مدينة للنبي خير الورى التهامي

You [Syedna Fakhruddin TUS] housed us in the city of the Prophet, the best of the world, Nabi of Tihaama (Tihaama is a coastal plain along the Arabian Peninsula).

With this marefat, understanding, and belief we followed our Maula Syedna Taher Fakhruddin TUS in this auspicious journey to Madina and Makkah. Every step we took in this safar was steeped in gratitude, and we will continue to offer hamd, shukur, and gratitude to Allah Ta'ala for granting us this invaluable opportunity for the rest of our lives.
